Plenaries

Seek the Light, Act Boldly

As Quakers we gather in corporate worship to seek Light, listening for that still small voice that leads us into bold action.

Thursday Night (7:30):

Testimony of Brother John

In what promises to be a moving and motivational session, John Adams, “Brother John”, will be speaking about his life story and how his life story inspires others to carry on. John is a native of Tuskegee, Alabama and a member of Atlanta Friends Meeting and has spent many years in public service.

Friday Night (7:30):

QVS: Faith, Service & Impact

An inspirational evening featuring an inter-generational panel with Quaker Voluntary Service young adult Fellows, Alumni, and supporting Friends. As moderator, QVS Executive Director Hilary Burgin will invite panelists to share about their experience of service and faith and the impact QVS has had on their lives. Quaker Voluntary Service (QVS) is an 11-month fellowship opportunity for young adult Friends and spiritual seekers to integrate their spirituality and activism, while being supported in developing their passion and purpose.

Side Notes

Please Read

Bathroom:

Yearly Meeting Planning Committee is sensitive to the needs of all Friends at Yearly Meeting. We have mixed gender couples, transgender Friends, families, etc. YMPC is in discernment as to the labels/signs for bathrooms/showers. The Registration Form asks for your preference.

Please indicate your preference where asked. We will do our best to accommodate you.

All Day Coffee Pot:

Because of lack of resources and volunteers, we are unable to provide all-day coffee at this time. If a monthly meeting, worship group, or individual is willing to assume this responsibility, contact Carol Nickle, carolsnickle@att.net. To be sure to have your coffee other than just at meals, you will need to bring your own.

Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business
Thursday afternoon; Friday, Saturday, & Sunday mornings in Canon Lounge

Each session begins with silent, expectant worship. Before beginning our work each day we take a roll call of meetings present, introduce ourselves, and review the day's agenda.

During these meetings, recognizing that we are all in a single community desiring unity around the conclusions of our discussions and that no one Friend is in possession of complete knowledge, we come to Meeting with kindness in our hearts, expecting to be surprised by the solutions that appear. To facilitate our process, we endeavor to state our concerns just once, trusting that through deep listening, Friends will hear us. In turn, we strive to listen actively and carefully to others so that we can discern the sense of the meeting. Anyone at any time may call for silence to help us with our discernment.

The many things we do include:

- Approve nominations for SAYMA's officers and committees.
- Consider next year's budget (10/1/19 - 9/30/20).
- Hear reports from committees, invited guests, and WQO representatives.
- Labor with concerns that have arisen over the past year.
- Hear epistles from JYM, SAYF, YAF, and Yearly Meeting.

A Note on Reports:

Documents needed for business will be posted on the SAYMA website (www.sayma.org) beginning June 3. If you download those you want to reference, you'll save SAYMA the expense of printing paper copies. You can also access the internet in Canon Lounge.

Paper copies will be available for those without internet access and binders will have copies for your perusal both at the back of Canon Lounge and downstairs in Gladfelter near the registration desk.

Please indicate on your registration form if you would like paper copies to be available at Warren Wilson. As a part of our concern for the environment, and as good stewards of YM funds, we will make only a few more copies than requested in advance. Copies of the Final Program will be available for all registered participants.

Why You Need to Register Early

Please register by Saturday, May 4 and avoid the $30 late fee. This is a postmark or email timestamp deadline. After May 29, no advance registration is possible. Adults can sign up On-site. Registrations for children (including SAYFers) must be received no later than May 29 because of the need to arrange for adult volunteers.

Friends who register after May 23 may find that their requested accommodations, including single rooms, are not available. If you must have A/C, a single room, accessible housing, or have other special requests, you must register by May 31. After that date, requests are first come, first serve. You will be notified if we cannot accommodate you.

The last day we can process a registration is June 6. After May 23, please get in touch with Susan Phelan before sending your registration by calling her at 865-272-9621 or emailing her at Saymaoffice@gmail.com

Payment by Credit Card

SAYMA will accept credit card payments for registration IN ADVANCE ONLY. No credit cards will be accepted at onsite registration: you'll need a check or cash.

You may mail or email your registration form and in the box marked payment enclosed, write "CC." Once your registration is processed, an invoice will be sent to you through PayPal for payment. You will have the option of paying all or half of your fees. The deposit payment will be due May 4. In other words, even if you register on April 16, you don't have to pay the deposit until May 4. However, if you fail to pay your deposit by May 4, you will be subject to a late fee. Note that you do not have to have a PayPal account to pay your invoice.

If you choose to pay half, you will receive a reminder to pay the balance on or before Monday, June 10. You may also choose to pay at Warren Wilson when you arrive, cash or check only.

If Your Plans Change

You may cancel your registration and receive a full 100% refund – but only if we hear from you by Monday, May 27, at the latest.

Cancelling after we give the count to the college means that SAYMA has to pay for your meals and the rooms even though you won't be there. However, if helping SAYMA pay for these expenses causes you financial hardship, you may request a partial refund.

Requesting a Scholarship

Think of finding the funds to come to yearly meeting in three places: your own resources, your meeting, and SAYMA.

Getting financial assistance for Yearly Meeting starts with your monthly meeting because they know you best. So ask the clerk of your meeting or the clerk of your Ministry & Nurture committee as soon as possible so they can work with you in a timely way.

Your meeting may be able to fully meet your needs, but if not, once SAYMA receives notice or a check from your monthly meeting it will contribute whatever amount you still need. SAYMA scholarships are available to cover yearly meeting fees: registration, rooms, meals, and campus use. SAYMA scholarships do not cover travel costs or the cost of the late fee.

Workshops Friday

Choose one Friday Workshop - #1 through 13” Workshops meet on Friday & Saturday afternoons from 1:15 to 3 p.m

1. 12 Step Programs and the Light, Annie Black, Cookeville

Quakers can learn many things from 12 step programs. How to truly welcome diversity and celebrate difference are just two examples from my own experience. In this workshop, I will share briefly, and then invite participants to build on that and explore further together how to build community.

2. SAYMA Outreach reaching out to SAYMA, Wood Bouldin and Steve Woodall, Greenbrier/ Charleston WV

We will “seek new Light” about outreach through dialogue and worship-sharing about this two-part query: If Quakerism is living to know and be led by a spiritual illumination of the heart that every life needs, ought not Friends’ try to offer this experience to the widest possible audience? Sponsored by the SAYMA Outreach Committee.

3. Acting Boldly: Are We Called to Civil Disobedience?, Kate Anthony, Chattanooga

We will explore where a radical adherence to Quaker testimonies might lead. I will ground this workshop in my own history of civil disobedience and ask others to share their civil disobedience histories and/ or qualms about civil disobedience. We will do some worship sharing about leadings, and the workshop will also incorporate some information as well as handouts on Quaker civil disobedience (especially Bayard Rustin) and current C.D. movements (especially Rev. Barber and the Poor People’s Campaign and Earth Quaker Action team, both of which I have participated in).

4. Quakers and Paganism, Bonijean Isaacs and Rylin Mariel, Charleston/Greenbrier

We will describe different aspects of paganism, and discuss why Quakerism appeals to many people with pagan backgrounds. We will explain what goes into a ritual and participant in an actual pagan-style ritual.

5. The Power of Enough, Jacqueline Stillwell, NEYM

What do I need/want in my life? How much is enough? How does a micro-enterprise grant empower women in Africa and India to provide basic needs for their families? Right Sharing of World Resources works for equity through partnership with our sisters and brothers throughout the world. Explore these questions and how you can make a difference. Sponsored by Right Sharing of World Resources.

6. Using Individual Spiritual Discernment to seek the Light and then act boldly, Jerry Knutson, SEYM

I will guide participants through my Pendle Hill Pamphlet #443 “Individual Spiritual Discernment”—their best-selling pamphlet. This workshop will focus on practicing methods of discernment, testing and implementing the discernment, and practicing spiritual disciplines. Participants are encouraged to read the pamphlet in advance and bring it to the workshop.

7. Bringing Light to Wall Street: Investing with Quaker Values, Kate Monahan, *Friends Fiduciary

This session from Friends Fiduciary will focus on how, as communities and individuals, we can work for the world we seek through stewardship of our assets. How can we invest consistent with our Quaker values and bring that Light to Wall Street?

8. Relationships with Indigenous Peoples, Patricia M. Johnson, Asheville

This workshop builds knowledge of Indigenous Peoples’ experiences and provides ways to follow-up and “act boldly” according to their desires while exploring our own Spiritual leading. This workshop allows participants to learn whose land they are on (if not already known) and some of the history of Indigenous Peoples with the goal of seeking truth and right relationships with them. We will gather resources to aid us and challenge ourselves to seize every opportunity to follow their suggestions.

9. Acting Boldly for the Environment: a Green New Deal at Home, Roy Taylor, Atlanta

We are in a time of moral crisis. The latest science tells us we have 12 years to have made significant change to save creation from destruction. As Friends, our testimonies of integrity and equality inform us that we must all be included in this change. The Green New Deal provides a framework to do this work with justice. What would a Green New Deal at the state and local level look like? Let us design one together.

10. Dance for Community, Tim Lamm, Berea

In this participatory workshop on community dance, we will do several types of community dances—circles, lines, longways sets, square sets, etc. The goal is to experience how group dance can lead to feelings of joy and connection with others. No previous experience necessary. Must be able to walk independently and briskly.

11. Healing Justice (a two-part workshop), Bert Skellie, Atlanta

We will watch and discuss the film, “Healing Justice.” Imagine replacing the criminal punishment system by viewing and discussing this inspiring film, which uses poetry, dance and individual testimony. How do we increase the use of restorative justice? Friday: “The Impact of Trauma.” Saturday: “Redefining Justice” + “The Power of Healing.”

12. Changing systems, changing ourselves: Anti-racist practice for accompaniment & resistance (a two-part workshop), Jacob Flowers

Do you want to join a community of people of faith and conscience committed to taking action as well as practicing reflection? Join the American Friends Service Committee for a two-part interactive workshop to explore, reflect, and act for social change. Learn and practice the skills for accompaniment and resistance work in your own communities, plus get a mini-update on the AFSC and its work around the world! *AFSC

13. A body-mind approach applicable for stress and moments of stressful discernment (a two-part workshop), Teree aka Terry Jeanne, MSOM, L Ac, West Knoxville

This workshop is an introduction to use of language and intention as part of bodily wholeness and being, and to noticing, and being with, our own psycho-spiritual constructs and sense of stress as body-mind awareness. Exploring understanding of an inner aspect of calm that is akin to discernment. As a seasoned facilitator of a unique body-mind “hack” technique, I will introduce us to its application. We will then have the option to use it immediately on whatever is stressing us at the moment, and to get some sense of how perceptual shifts can occur with some very specific acu-point stimulation.

Saturday Workshops

Choose one. Workshops meet on Friday & Saturday afternoons from 1:15 to 3 p.m

14. Walking in the Light, Lori Sinitzky, Green Street

We are called to Walk in the Light, to worship deeply and practice a living and vital faith in the world. We will use FGC's Spiritual Deepening Library to guide us through spiritual practices that lead to wholeness in the Light. Join us in embracing the transformative power of Quaker spirituality. Sponsored by Friends General Conference.

15. What Does It Mean To Be A White Ally?, Patti C. Hughes, Asheville

White Allies are key in the work of the multiracial majority for justice. This workshop will be an eye-opening introduction to what it means to be a White Ally. Discussion, lecture, small group activities and reflection will help us grow in our understanding of racism. We will dig deep to strengthen our empathy; our ability to place ourselves in another's position so we can better do the work of anti-racism.

16. Putting faith into action with grassroots advocacy, Sarah Freeman-Woolpert, *FCNL

This workshop will explore how to lift up core Quaker values in our political engagement, particularly through grassroots advocacy to promote peace and justice. Participants will explore ways to be effective, intentional and purposeful in advocacy work by building spirit-led relationships with elected officials and their staff.

17. Quaker Family Life: An Open Conversation About The Research, Windy Cooler, BYM

Last year, I was hosted by SAYMA and seven other yearly meetings as I traveled across the country interviewing Friends about the health of our families in monthly and yearly meetings. I was supervised by ESR and embraced by my yearly meeting, BYM. In this workshop, I will engage participants in understanding and responding to the research and in creating more detail from which our meetings can act.

18. Building multigenerational spiritual relationships, Hilary Burgin, Beacon Hill, Boston; *QVS

Join Quaker Voluntary Service Executive Director Hilary Burgin for a hands-on workshop exploring deepening relationships across generations. Participants will have the opportunity to reframe multigenerational spiritual mentoring relationships and practice skills to connect more deeply.

19. Two Thousand Years Ago In Jerusalem, Richard C. Allen, Atlanta

I will briefly introduce and then play eight original piano pieces that musically describe the events of the first Easter week. I will answer questions and invite comments.

20. Following Our Compass: A Bold Course, Hank Fay, Berea

Following The Compass is a 6-week course that teaches non-Friends through experience what Quakers do: we ask, we listen, we accept our leading, and we take action. After a very brief introduction, we will experience the first session in FOC, which is a hands-on, learn by doing and sharing experience. This will be followed by a sharing of reactions to the experience.

21. Intergenerational Games, SAYF: Southern Appalachian Young Friends

This workshop will explore how to lift up core Quaker values in our political engagement, particularly through grassroots advocacy to promote peace and justice. Participants will explore ways to be effective, intentional and purposeful in advocacy work by building spirit-led relationships with elected officials and their staff.

If you signed up for a two-part workshop on Friday, remember to attend part two on Saturday:

11. Healing Justice (a two-part workshop)

12. Changing systems, changing ourselves: Anti-racist practice for accompaniment & resistance (a two-part workshop)

13. A body-mind approach applicable for stress and moments of stressful discernment (a two-part workshop)

2019 SAYMA Registration Form Instructions

These instructions assume you are filling out a paper form. If you are using Excel or registering on line, the calculations will be automatic, so you can skip steps marked with an asterisk (*). Little of the information SAYMA needs for registration has changed from last year. These instructions are intended to answer questions you might have about specific items in the registration.

This year, the registration form is in two parts. Each registration consists of a household form as well as an individual form for each person coming to SAYMA.

- A Household form tells us whom to contact about the registration and provides space for summarizing fees for registration, meals, and housing. On this form, list the name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address of the family or group registering together. Warren Wilson University requires the name and phone number of an emergency contact person not attending SAYMA.
- An Individual form for each person in the household tells us each person’s characteristics and needs for program planning, as well as desired meals, accommodations, workshops, and worship sharing. We suggest completing individual forms for each household member before filling out the household form.

Complete the Individual form(s)

1. Please put the name of the household in the upper left of the form in case the forms get separated.
2. Fill in the registration type. This determines fees and program offerings. Registration types are Adult, SAYF (teenage Friends), JYM (children age 0-12), YAF (young adult Friends), and special categories: Guest (invited visitor), Staff, WQO (official representative of a wider Quaker organization), and FAN (Friendly adult nurturer for the SAYF participants)
3. Provide name
4. Indicate gender. Options are M(male), F(female), X(other), and blank. Supplying gender information is not required. It may be helpful pairing roommates and planning activities for children.
5. As appropriate, provide age (if under 20), school grade in the fall, e-mail address, and cell phone number.
6. Indicate if this is the first time at SAYMA
7. Choose workshops from the list in the program, and write numbers in the boxes for each day.
8. Check if the person wants to participate in worship sharing.
9. List the days of arrival (Wed-Sun) and departure. Choose accommodation type (Bed: single bed in shared room; Room: single room; Floor: Child sleeping on floor in parents’ room; Day: sleeping off campus). If staying on campus, choose a dormitory type (General; SAYF: teenagers; YAF: Young adults; SimpleSupper: shared simple evening meal with others in dorm). Tell us if you have a preferred roommate, if you chose a shared room. Check the box if you wish to rent linens.
- *10. Calculate the cost of accommodations by multiplying the number of days (for those not staying overnight) or nights on campus by the appropriate rate. Rates are:

Accommodation type	Cost	Unit description
Day rate, if you are not staying overnight on campus	$7.50	Per day you are on campus. Include the first and last day of a range of days.
Bed in a shared dormitory room	$35.00	Per night you stay on campus.
Private dormitory room	$66.50	Per night you stay on campus
Child sleeping on floor in parents’ room	No charge	N/A

11. Check the meals you want to have in the cafeteria.

- *12. Count the number of breakfasts, lunches, and suppers requested, and calculate the cost of meals for persons age 12 and older using the calculation grid by multiplying the count by the cost for each meal. Bring the total to the Total Meals box.

Meal	Cost
Breakfast	$6.75
Lunch	$8.50
Dinner	$10.50

13. Check any special needs, and add particulars under “notes.” If you have a bathroom preference, indicate it here. The Yearly Meeting Planning Committee is in discernment as to the labels/signs for bathrooms/showers. We will do our best to accommodate your preference. If you indicate a gender, but not a bathroom preference, we will make reasonable assumptions based on stated gender.
14. Check the ways you would be willing to help at Yearly Meeting.

Complete the Household form

1. Enter the date on which you expect to mail the registration or submit it by e-mail. See #10.
2. List the name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address of the family or group registering together. Warren Wilson University requires the name and phone number of an emergency contact person not attending SAYMA.
- *3. In the fee calculation grid, list the name of each household member. If the person is a teenager or adult, write the registration fee ($57.00). There is no fee for Junior Yearly Meeting (JYM) registrants.
- *4. Copy the cost of accommodations from each individual form into the Accommodations column.
- *5. Copy the cost of meals from each individual form into the Meal Cost column.
- *6. If the individual wants to rent linens, enter $21.00 in the Linens column.
- *7. Total the costs across each line and put in the Total column. This is only necessary for individuals who have fee waivers but might be helpful to check your addition if you do it for every household member.
- *8. If an individual is eligible for a fee waiver (Staff, WQO, Guest, FAN), copy the total cost to the FeeWaivers column. If you are eligible for a fee waiver and want to decline it, you may contribute the amount to support Yearly Meeting (see #11 below).
- *9. Total the costs in each column to the Total row, and carry the amounts to the appropriate boxes in the Fee Summary section. The maximum registration fee for a household is $171.00. If the total calculated fee exceeds that amount, put $171.00 in the Registration fees box.
- *10. If you expect to mail the registration after May 4, 2019, then put a late fee of $30.00 in the Late Fee box.
11. If you would like to make an extra contribution to support Yearly Meeting, put it in the Extra Contribution box. Extra contributions are used to support scholarships to Yearly Meeting; if there are more donations than scholarship requests, the balance is used to defray costs of Yearly Meeting.
- *12. Total the amounts under Fee Summary to calculate total amount due.
13. Write the amount you will pay with this registration, and put it under Payments. Note whether you are sending a check, or if you want us to bill you by e-mail using Pay Pal by putting “Check” or “PayPal” in the Form of Payment box.
14. If you expect a scholarship from your monthly meeting, put the amount in “Monthly Meeting Scholarship.”
15. If you are requesting a SAYMA scholarship, put the amount in the SAYMA Scholarship Request box.
- *16. If any individuals in your household are eligible for fee waivers, bring the total to the Fee Waivers box.
- *17. Add the total payments.
- *18. If the total is less than the Total Due, enter the difference as Balance Due at Yearly Meeting. You can pay on arrival by cash or check. We do not accept credit cards for registration payments on site.

You’re finished. Send in the form to SAYMA, 1702 Pratt Avenue NE, Huntsville, AL 35801 or e-mail it to SAYMAOffice@gmail.com. Please note that SAYMA’s mailing address has changed since last Yearly Meeting. Enclose a check for your deposit, forward one separately, or wait for us to send you a statement by e-mail with PayPal instructions. We’ll see you at Yearly Meeting.

Registering for SAYF at SAYMA, June 13-16 2019

If parents or guardians are coming to Yearly Meeting, SAYFers can be included on their family's registration form. SAYFers who are registering by themselves may prefer using the interactive form on the SAYMA website as it will guide you to the right choices for SAYF.

SAYFers must register for yearly meeting by May 23. After May 23, contact Susan Phelan (865-272-9621 // SAYMAoffice@gmail.com) to see if space is available.

For sleep space, choose bed in shared room (SAYF Dorm):

- Sign up – and pay for – lunch and dinners only. Free breakfasts are provided every morning in the SAYF dorm. Lunch and dinner meals are only available in the cafeteria.

- Indicate which work shops you plan to attend by number when you register. This is not a firm commitment, but it is helpful for planners to have rough numbers for workshop attendance.

Note: that Middle Schoolers have an special and unlisted SAYF workshop option on Friday.

- SAYFers pay a registration fee and a campus use fee just like the adults.

SAYF at SAYMA Sponsor requirements and additional forms:

- SAYFers must arrange for a Sponsor, either a parent or adult Friend, who will be on campus throughout the gathering weekend. The Sponsor & their Young Friend(s) must attend a brief orientation meeting, and the Sponsor will be responsible for their Young Friend whenever they are not involved in mandatory SAYF activities.

- Visit the SAYF web site, <<http://awesomesayfers.org/sayma.shtml>>, for SAYF specific Registration Information. The additional Sponsor, SAYF Registration and Medical Release forms are required on your arrival for SAYF at SAYMA will be available for download there by May 1st. Arriving at Warren Wilson:

- Be sure to bring the additional SAYF-at-SAYMA forms with you, completed and signed, when you come to Warren Wilson for the Yearly Meeting SAYF retreat.

- The main Sponsor Orientation meeting will be held at 10:00pm Thursday, June 13, in the Gladfelter Cannon Lounge. All SAYFers and Sponsors on campus at that time must attend

Children at Yearly Meeting

Kids are free. Registration fees and meals are subsidized for young Friends until they are eligible for SAYF. They are also allowed to stay with their adults for no additional room charge.

Junior Yearly Meeting

Bring your children, grandchildren, cousins, and other young Friends, from rising 1st through rising 6th graders, to Junior Yearly Meeting!

Junior Yearly Meeting is big fun for young Friends. Games; crafts; farm tours; storytelling; music; nature; bubbles; swimming; laughter; community building; Quaker history and practice; cooking; sharing talents with the wider community; and reflecting on this year's theme with the wider community.

Playcare at Yearly Meeting

We offer Playcare at SAYMA – a supportive and contained environment where children ages 2 – 5 explore, play, and are nurtured by loving adults.

Babysitting at Yearly Meeting

Babysitting for children under 2 years old. Caring volunteers who comply with the SAYMA child safety policy will be available by pre-arrangement for babysitting for up to 2-hour periods during adult programming at SAYMA.

Working with Children and Teen Programs

Both JYM and SAYF need volunteer support during yearly meeting. If you are interested in volunteering, please let us know on your registration form. This gives us time to get in touch with you about your interests and to complete any child safety requirements.

For more information about any of these programs, or about qualifications of adults who work with the children, contact Jennifer Dickie at 404-313-8770 or JYM@sayma.org.

Young Adult Friends

SAYMA Young Adult Friends are a community of peers who meet for fellowship and fun at yearly meeting. Many are graduates of SAYF, but all young adults are welcome. YAFs work together to nurture mutual needs and concerns within the open, safe, and sacred space of the Quaker community at Yearly Meeting.

YAF invites any Friend to join them in their worship and in their business meetings and they lead a worship sharing for everyone on Saturday afternoon. The schedule will be published in the yearly meeting program handed out at check-in in June. In the meantime, if you want to room together with other YAFs, just let us know on the registration form by choosing the YAF dorm.

If you are filling out this form by hand, calculate accommodation and meal fees for each person on the registrant form. Bring the name of each individual in your group to the "Name" column above. Registration fee is $57.00 (no fee for JYM). Bring the accommodation and meal costs for each person to the appropriate column. Enter $21.00 in the Linens column if linens are requested. Add the registration, accommodation, meal, and linen costs for each person and put in the Total column. If a person is eligible for waived fees (guest, staff, WQO, or FAN), copy the total to the Fee Waivers column. Add columns and put totals in the Total line. The maximum household registration total is $171.00. Copy totals to the Fee Summary area (upper left). Enter late fee of $30 if registering after May 4. Enter the amount you are paying now under Payments, and the amount of scholarships you are requesting, and the total of waived fees. Add the total due, and the total of payments. The difference is the balance due at registration. Send a check with this form, or indicate PayPal as the form of payment if you want us to bill you.

Fun Stuff

Browse the Books for Sale and for Exchange

Books from FGC Bookstore (Quakerbooks) are available for browsing and purchase on the lower level of Gladfelter. Checks or cash are the preferred method of payment, but credit cards will be accepted at limited, scheduled times. Credit card purchases will include a small user fee, the amount that SAYMA is charged for processing. Bring used book to be included on the free-exchange table. Quaker themes are especially appreciated.

Set up a WQO Display

To set up a display for a Wider Quaker Organization, or to sell your own books, contact Chris Berg at cshapenote@hotmail.com or 864-414-4113 to reserve table space. (Please, though, no arts and crafts.)

Worship Sharing

Worship Sharing is a time to gather in small groups and seek a deeper understanding and maybe even answers to the questions we may have had or have never even thought of. Come share, learn a new perspective or listen to what your community is experiencing.

Friday: When I seek the Light, where do I find it?

How do I discern when a call to bold action comes from the Light?

What joys, disappointments or concerns have I experienced when attempting to act boldly?

Saturday: What injustices in the world are calling me to act boldly?

How do I practice compassion in my bold actions?

How has bold action affected my meeting community?

How does privilege inform the ways I choose to act?

Plan Ahead for Getting Around Campus

The campus is hilly; we rent an electric golf cart which shuttles on call between the Sunderland dorm and Gladfelter as well as the other buildings we use. You can request a shuttle to the parking lot behind Kitteridge, as well.

There is a much more level path between Gladfelter and Jensen if you bear right on the road and go past the Log Cabin. It brings you to the elevator on the lower level of Jensen. Look for the Log Cabin on the map in the final program when you check in.

And Please, Remember your Key Deposit

The college keeps careful control of room keys. You will need to leave a $5 deposit in cash for each key issued to you. It is helpful to have exact change.

Friday Afternoon: Play Boldly/ Rest Boldly

In response to 2018 evaluation comments, Friday from 3:30 to 4:45 p.m. will be free time. If you want to get a group together to hike, worship, meet, sing, dance, sit, talk, etc. put your activity on the bulletin board outside the dining room. Include where your group will gather, so Friends can come join you. Warren Wilson may offer a tour of the farm, and we hope for kite making as always. Get ready for a fun afternoon!
