Sleeping Arrangements: There will be a co-ed sleeping area and dorm rooms. FANs (Friendly Adult Nurturers) are assigned to all sleeping areas: a FAN is awake/available for assistance throughout the night. Young Friends (YFs) are required to be in their own sleeping bag/bedroll, and SAYF Guidelines apply at night as they do in the daytime. Immediate separation will occur and a clearness committee may result from violating the guidelines. We encourage parents to discuss with their child any sleeping requirements or concerns they have. If you have specific instructions about the sleeping arrangements of your YF, please discuss it with your child and verbally tell a FAN or contact the Lead FAN listed below. Unless we are notified, YFs are allowed to choose their sleeping area based on their own personal comfort levels and leadings.

Throughout the weekend, the adults of the SAYF community try to balance our awareness of the activities of the Young Friends with the importance to Young Friends of being trusted by the adults. Our goal is to teach accountability through guidelines, behavioral expectations, and community eldering. Therefore, it is ultimately up to the individual teen to act responsibly and to desire to be a positive element in the community. If you feel that your child is not able and willing to uphold our community rules and expectations, he or she should not attend retreats. **If a teen must leave the retreat, the adult accompanying him/her must notify the Lead-FAN*****

I give permission for my above named child to attend the SAYF Retreat at Southern Appalachian Yearly Meeting and Association held at Warren Wilson College from June 15-18, 2017. I give SAYF and its volunteers permission to obtain emergency help for my above-named child, and I hereby release the Southern Appalachian Yearly Meeting and Association (SAYMA), its staff, and volunteers from liability for any injuries or illness that my child may sustain during this retreat, or while being transported before, during, or after the retreat. I will be responsible for costs incurred for any medical treatment. In the event that my son/daughter needs special medications and is unable to administer them, I give my permission for an adult to administer the medications.

SAYF Guidelines

Love and respect the boundaries of the community and its individuals by:

- ~ Respecting people and their stuff.
- ~ Being inclusive.
- ~ Maintaining confidentiality.
- ~ Attending mandatory activities.
- ~ Refraining from using generally offensive or derogatory language.
- ~ Avoiding the expression of violence, which includes the possession of weapons of any kind.
- ~ Never bringing or using alcohol, drugs or other restricted substances.
- ~ Abstaining from sexual activity and inappropriate physical contact.

Love and respect yourself by being safe and aware of your surroundings.

Love and respect the environment by helping with clean-up, only using fire during designated activities, and following local rules.
